Proceedings: (IN CHAMBERS) ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

On March 31, 2022, Plaintiff Angela DeLegge (“Plaintiff”) filed a Complaint (“Complaint” or “Compl.”) against Defendant USCB Corporation (“USCB”). Electronic Case Filing Number (“ECF No.”) 1, Compl. On June 28, 2022, Plaintiff filed a Proof of Service of Summons of Complaint (“Proof of Service” or “POS”), indicating that Plaintiff served the summons and Complaint on USCB on June 3, 2022. ECF No. 10, POS.

Generally, defendants must answer or otherwise respond to a complaint within twenty-one days after being served with the summons and Complaint. Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(a)(1)(A)(i). Here, because service was effectuated on June 3, 2022, USCB’s answer was due twenty-one days later, on June 24, 2022. As of the date of this Order, USCB has not filed an answer or otherwise responded to the Complaint and Plaintiff has not requested that default be entered against USCB as authorized under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure (“Rule”) 55. As such, this litigation is stalled.

Accordingly, Plaintiff is ORDERED TO SHOW CAUSE in writing by July 15, 2022, why this action should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute. Plaintiff can satisfy this order by requesting that default be entered against USCB pursuant to Rule 55 by the date stated above. Plaintiff is warned that failure to timely respond to this OSC in the manner stated above may result in the dismissal of this action for failure to prosecute and follow Court orders.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
